Benefits of Telework

- Greater work efficiency and productivity due to uninterrupted work time
- Supports continuity of operations plans
- Greater job satisfaction and higher morale Increased staff loyalty and commitment
- Increased staff retention and reduced staff turnover
- Supports recruitment due to the appeal of telework
- Less time commuting
- Reduced cost of commuting
- Reduced carbon dioxide emissions and pollution
- Reduced traffic congestion
- Increased parent involvement in their neighborhoods, schools, and communities (due to decreased commute time to and from the workplace)
- Reduced cost of after- and/or before-school care for older children (caring for babies or other children needing more care while working should be discouraged)